

PROVING EXCELLENCE IN SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY THROUGH INDONESIA CSR AWARD 2023

Tangerang, 31 August 2023, PT Pan Brothers Tbk (“Perseroan; Pan Brothers”) received the Indonesia CSR Award 2023 Gold category from Economic Review at Artotel Hotel, Jakarta.

The Economic Review's Indonesia CSR Award (ICSRA) is given as an annual recognition for companies that have been dedicated to increasing their positive impact on society and the environment. 2023 marks the sixth year of the ICSRA award. The award is expected to motivate other companies to take similar actions to strengthen their commitment to corporate social responsibility. The Company won the award for its sustainable production practices that carry the 3 basic cornerstones of the Company's sustainability, 3P: People, Planet, Profit which includes education, emission reduction, and circular economy programs.

In its statement, Pan Brothers' management, represented by Ms. Elysia Intan Permatasari as Corporate Secretary, expressed its gratitude and pride for this award. She said, "This award is a symbol of the Company's commitment and responsibility towards social and environment, where circular economy initiatives and emission reduction are also priority targets. The involvement of all parties is the key to our success. Hopefully, this achievement can be an encouragement for us to continue to strive to improve the Company's performance in the future, while continuing to have a positive impact on all our stakeholders."

In addition to its CSR programs, Pan Brothers has also created significant employment in Indonesia, making a positive impact on the local economy. The Company is also active in efforts to improve the quality of life of their employees through training, education, and welfare programs. Pan Brothers will continue to increase its positive impact, both in the garment industry and society as a whole. May this award not be the end of the journey, but an encouragement to go further in creating a better world for all.
